An Encouraging Word

I attended the Southern Baptist Convention this week in Birmingham, AL. It was a good week seeing lots of my pastor friends I have known for many years. Even more, it made me grateful to call myself a Southern Baptist. While many denominations seem to be drifting away from the Bible, our denomination remains committed to the Word of God. We may be criticized at times for our Biblical stances, but we know who we are and where we stand. There are five things I wish everyone knew about Southern Baptists.

1. We teach that salvation comes by grace through faith in Jesus Christ.
2. The Bible is our complete and total authority and we have no creeds.
3. We are the largest sender of missionaries in the world today.
4. We believe in the autonomy of the local church, not a hierarchy.
5. We are not all "southern" anymore! We are a global denomination.

I share these simply to let you know why we choose to affiliate with the Southern Baptist Convention. I am truly thankful to serve a Church family who embraces these principles and allows me to preach and teach the Bible in a way that does not compromise my values.

Be encouraged,
Pastor Rob

Living in the World

1 Peter 2:11-17

As Christians, we are aliens or exiles on the earth. This world is not our home. Our true home is in heaven. But until we get to heaven, we are to live in this world. For my sermon today, I want to share with you four ways you can live out your faith in the world.

1. Live out your faith by abstaining from the passions of the _____. (11)
2. Live out your faith by keeping your conduct among the Gentiles _____. (12)
3. Live out your faith by being subject to every human _____. (13-15)
4. Live out your faith by using your freedom to serve _____. (16-17)
