An Encouraging Word

I love the story about the preacher who wanted his Church to give more to God. He was talking to a farmer named Fred and asked, "Fred, if you had a million dollars, would you give half to God?" Fred replied, "I sure would." Then the preacher asked, "Fred, if you had 10,000 acres of land, would you give half to God?" Fred replied, "I sure would." Then the preacher asked, "Fred, if you had two cows, would you give half to God?" Fred replied, "Now hold on preacher, you know I've got two cows!"

If you want to honor God, you need to start today with what you have. The question is not "What you would do if you had more?" The question is what are you doing right now with what you have? When it comes to giving, I want to encourage you to do four things. First, determine the amount you will give. Second, determine how often you will give. Third, determine the method in which you will give. And fourth, start today and don't quit.

Will it be easy? No. I have never known anyone who has tithed and said it was easy. But I have never known anyone who has tithed and regretted it. For when you trust God with the tithe, you grow spiritually. And when God can trust you with a little, it is then that He can trust you with more.

Be encouraged,
Pastor Rob
