An Encouraging Word

All my life I have enjoyed sports. As a child, I played baseball in the summer, football in the fall, basketball in the winter, and tennis in between. On most teams, you had a few superstars, a number of average players, and many bench warmers. Many of the bench warmers were officially on the team, but they did not want to play. They were completely content sitting on the bench and watching others play the game.

I have a similar observation when it comes to people in the Church. We have a few superstars, a number of average players, and many bench warmers. Many of the bench warmers are officially members of the Church, but they are not committed to serve. They are perfectly content sitting on the bench and watching others play the game. Could this be you? Could it be that you are on the team, but you do not want to play in the game? You come to Church 2-3 times a month, sit in your chair, and listen to me preach. If that is the extent of your involvement in Church, I have a challenge for you. I want to challenge you to get involved. I want to challenge you to officially become a member. I want to challenge you to start serving in a ministry. I want to challenge you to join a growth group or Bible study.

The purpose of my sermon today is to encourage you to take the next step on your spiritual journey. I want to encourage you to make the decision to get off the bench and into the game!

Be encouraged,
Pastor Rob
