An Encouraging Word

One thing I have noticed in life is that we have the tendency to judge other people by their worst faults, yet we judge ourselves by our best intentions. I found this poem that I think illustrates the words I want to share with you today.

*Don't find fault with a man who limps
or stumbles along the road,
Unless you've worn the shoes he wears,
or stressed beneath his load.
There may be tacks in his shoes that hurt
though hidden away from view,
Or the burden he bears placed on your back,
might cause you to stumble too.
Don't sneer at the man who is down today unless you have felt the blow
That caused his fall or felt his shame that only the fallen know.
You may be strong, but still the blows are his, if dealt to you,
In the same self-way and the same self-time, might cause you to stagger too.
Don't be too harsh with the man that sins or pelt him with words or stones,
Unless you are sure, yes, doubly sure, that you don't have sins of your own.
For you know perhaps that if the tempter's voice should whisper soft to you,
As it did to him when he went astray, it would cause you to falter too.*

Be encouraged,
Pastor Rob

Marks of Mercy

Matthew 5:7

If I am merciful...

1. I will be _____ with those who are peculiar. (1 Thessalonians 5:14)
2. I will _____ those who have fallen. (Colossians 3:13)
3. I will _____ those who are hurting. (Proverbs 3:27)
