An Encouraging Word

*The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy;
I came that they may have life,
and have it abundantly.
John 10:10*

John 10:10 is possibly my favorite verse of Scripture in the Bible. It tells you very clearly the purpose of Satan (the thief) and the purpose of Jesus. Both Satan and Jesus speak to us, but it is our choice to whom we will listen. This verse tells us that Satan has come to steal and kill and destroy. He makes you think he is giving you what you want, but make no mistake; he is a thief and a robber. His goal is to steal your happiness and your joy. His purpose is to kill your hopes and your dreams. His plan is to destroy your marriage and your family. And he is good at his job. We are seeing families destroyed every week right before our eyes and you will never convince me that Satan is not smiling at the destruction of the family in America today.

The first part of John 10:10 paints a dim picture of our lives here on earth. The thief has come to steal and kill and destroy. But aren’t you glad that the verse doesn’t end there? For in the same verse, Jesus says, “I have come that they may have life, and have it abundantly.” Wow! What a contrast! Right when things were looking so bad, we have a statement of hope. Jesus Christ has come into the world so that we might have eternal life in heaven and an abundant life on earth. But the choice is yours. You can listen to the thief or you can listen to God. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.
